

Australasian Gaming Expo 2010

Sunday 8th to Tuesday 10th August are the dates for the Gaming Expo in 2010.

About 170 companies put their best foot forward in August each year to really show off their skills, their knowledge and their innovative new products and services.

It's always an exciting time – Australia's gaming machine suppliers showcase the latest games and machines, in fantastic display areas with elaborate product demonstrations.

The Gaming Expo always brings a large and diverse range of suppliers together under one roof. But what will make the event even more significant this year are the 25 new exhibitors. In a confident show of optimism in the region's Gaming and Hospitality industry, companies from Australia and abroad have taken the important step of participating in all the activity around the Gaming Expo.

The event website www.austgamingexpo.com already lists over 130 companies exhibiting and visitor traffic to the website is greater than ever before. Conveniently sorted by company name, by stand number or by category, the Exhibitors List provides contact details and links to each company website for visitors looking for information. As well as the Gaming Equipment you might expect, Categories include Building, Cash Handling, Food Products, Flooring, Furniture, Security and Signage – in what may well be the most complete and up-to-date source of information about Gaming and Hospitality industry supplies anywhere.

Entry to the Gaming Expo is complimentary for gaming industry executives, who can register online at www.austgamingexpo.com or call the Gaming Expo Help Line on 1300 724 030.
